

Left—FIFTH AVENUE PARADERS. Helen and Lilly Lee, two picturesque Chinese Girl Scouts in last Saturday's inspiring parade of 4,000 Girl Scouts on Fifth Avenue. Each of the girls carried colored balloons, autumn leaves and flowers to be distributed among the city hospitals.

A GUN PIT ON THE AERIAL TANK. Two of the thirty machine guns of the JL-2, an all-metal armored military monoplane which made an initial non-stop flight last week from Washington to New York in two hours. The "engine of death" will fire 3,000 shots (.45 caliber) in four seconds while flying at 140 miles an hour. H. & E. from Paul Thompson.

Left — BELGIUM'S HERO SALUTES LIBERTY. Lieutenant General Baron Jacques, Chief of Staff of the Belgian Army and heroic figure in the defense of his country during the war, pays tribute to America by saluting the Statue of Liberty on his arrival here as guest of the American Legion.

A TRIO OF VALIANT VISITORS, the first sonages from other lands to arrive in this place on the Limitation of Armament and Cemetery in honor of America's "Unknown" mando Diaz, the Italian generalissimo, who Sir David Beatty, England's popular naval commander of Belgium's heroic little army—private train in Washington after being SNAPPED AT NO. 10 DOWNING STREET. Lloyd George, Prime Minister of England and the world's busiest statesman, gives an audience for the first time to his baby granddaughter, the child of his daughter, Mrs. Cary-Evans, who is sitting next to the doughty Welshman. At the left on the garden bench are Miss Megan Lloyd George, Mrs. Lloyd George and another grandchild.

Right—A POPULAR WASHINGTON DEB. Pretty Laura Lejeune, whose daddy is Major General John A. Lejeune, commandant of the United States Marine Corps, who promises to be one of Washington's most popular debutantes this winter, snapped on the way to the golf links. The jolly little lady, as a "sub-deb" last year, was one of the leaders in the capital's younger set.

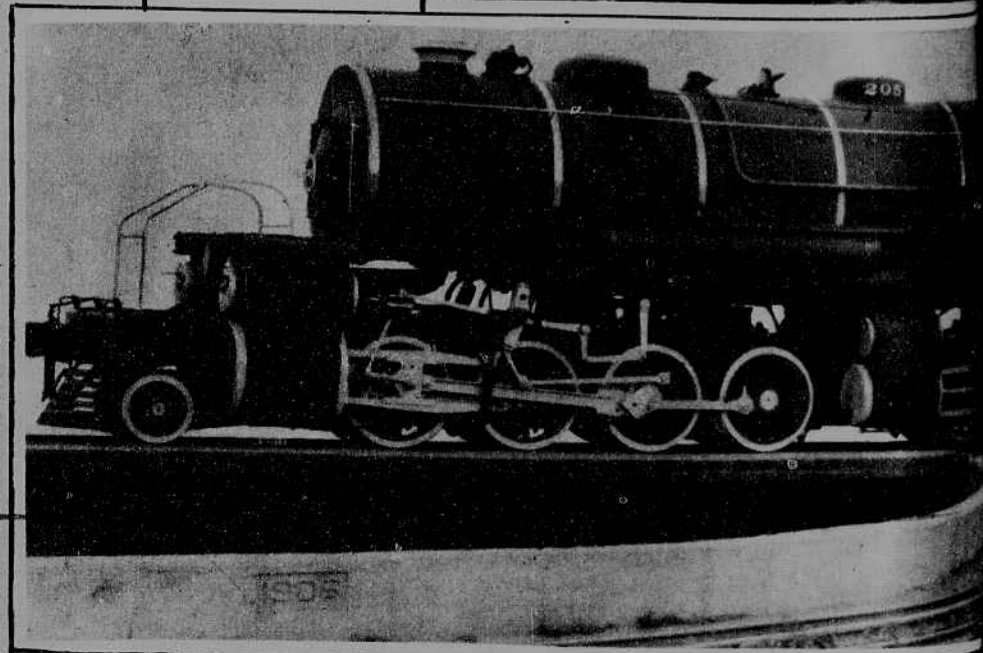

Left — MRS. VINCENT ASTOR returns to New York on the Aquitania after a five weeks' visit with her husband's stepfather and mother, Lord and Lady Ribblesdale, in London. The former Helen D. Huntington had expected her husband to meet her with his yacht and take her to Rhinebeck, but a wireless informed her that he was delayed on the voyage up from Cuba by high seas and heavy winds.

FIRST AMERICAN TO WED PRINCESS. Above — William B. Leeds Jr., with his princess bride, Xenia, just after the religious ceremony. After the civil ceremony the wedding party posed for a photograph to the right. Princess Anastasia, Mr. Leeds's mother, is at the left and Princess Marie of Greece, mother of the bride, is at the right.

Right—OUR OLD-EST LEATHERNECK, Sergeant H. B. Hollowell, U. S. Marines, some eighty-two years of age and the oldest "devil dog" in the service, meets Secretary of the Navy Denby, himself a member of the Marine Corps during the war. The octogenarian sergeant, a veteran of many a scrap on land and sea, served as an orderly under President Buchanan.

THE LARGEST LOCOMOTIVE EVER SHIPPED FROM THE UNITED STATES, largest in the world outside of this country. It was built by the American Locomotive Co. and operated entirely by Chinese. Locomotive and tender the mechanical monster with the Chinaman standing by the cab.

